BOUSTEAD HOLDINGS BERHAD BOARD CHARTER

1. INTRODUCTION

The Board of Directors of Boustead Holdings Berhad regard Corporate Governance as vitally important to the success of Boustead's business and are unreservedly committed to applying the principles necessary to ensure that the following principles of good governance is practised in all of its business dealings in respect of its shareholders and relevant stakeholders:

- The Board is the focal point of the Company's Corporate Governance system. It is ultimately accountable and responsible for the performance and affairs of the Company.
- All Board members are expected to act in a professional manner, thereby upholding the core values of integrity and enterprise with due regard to their fiduciary duties and responsibilities in compliance with Boustead Code of Ethics and Conduct.
- All Board members are responsible to the Company for achieving a high level of good governance.
- This Board Charter shall constitute, and form, an integral part of each Director's duties and responsibilities.

2. OBJECTIVE

The objective of this Board Charter is to ensure that all Board members acting on behalf of the Company are aware of their legal and fiduciary duties and responsibilities as Directors. The Board shall adopt principles of good corporate governance and practices, that accord with applicable laws. This Board Charter shall serve as primary reference for Directors in executing their responsibilities.

3. THE BOARD

3.1 Role

- 3.1.1 The Board assumes the duty of leading and managing the Company in an effective and responsible manner. Each Director takes on the legal and fiduciary duties to act in the best interest of the Company. The Directors, collectively and individually, are aware of their responsibilities to shareholders and stakeholders for the manner in which the affairs of the Company are managed. The Board sets the Company's values and standards and ensures that its obligations to its shareholders and stakeholders are understood and met.
- 3.1.2 The Board understands that the responsibility for good Corporate Governance rests with the Board and therefore strives to follow the principles and best practices. The Board shall disclose the application of the principles and practices of Corporate Governance pursuant to the MMLR.
- 3.1.3 The Board ensures that the Company complies with the relevant laws and guidelines at all times.
- 3.1.4 The Board meets in person at least once every quarter to facilitate the discharge of their responsibilities.
- 3.1.5 The Board shall assume the following duties:
- a) promoting good Corporate Governance culture within the Company which reinforces ethical, prudent and professional behaviour;
 - b) reviewing and deciding on management's proposals for the Company, and monitoring its implementation by management;
 - c) ensuring that the strategic plan of the Company supports long-term value creation and includes strategies on economic, environmental and social considerations underpinning sustainability;
 - d) supervising and assessing management performance to determine whether the business is being properly managed;
 - e) ensuring there is a sound framework for internal controls and risk management;
 - f) understanding the principal risks of the Company's business and recognising that business decisions involve the taking of appropriate risks;
 - g) ensuring that there is an appropriate risk management framework in place, for management to identify, manage and monitor significant financial and non-financial risks;
 - h) ensuring that Senior Management has the necessary skills and experience, and there are measures in place to provide for the orderly succession of Board and Senior Management;
 - i) ensuring that the Company has in place procedures to enable effective communication with stakeholders; and
 - j) ensuring the integrity of the Company's financial and non-financial reporting.
- 3.1.6 Each Director is expected:
- a) to exercise due care, skill and diligence;
 - b) to act in good faith in the best interest of the Company;
 - c) to avoid conflict of interest situation and not improperly use the position as Director or misuse information of the Company.
 - d) to exercise independent judgment in decision making;
 - e) to contribute actively to the functions of the Board and be able to provide sound and objective advice; and
 - f) to devote adequate time and attention to discharge his duties and responsibilities effectively.

3.1.7 New Directors are expected to have such expertise so as to qualify them to make a positive contribution to the Board performance of its duties and to give sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the Company. In any given circumstances, the Board of Directors of the Company is expected to serve in no more than 5 and 10 directorships in public listed and private companies respectively.

3.1.8 The Board collectively or individually, may seek independent professional advice in furtherance of their duties at the Company's expense.

3.2 Board Composition and Board Balance

3.2.1 The Board consists of qualified individuals with diverse experiences, backgrounds and perspectives. The composition and size of the Board is such that it facilitates the making of informed and critical decisions.

3.2.2 At any one time, at least two (2) or one-third (1/3), whichever is higher, of the Board members are Independent Directors.

3.2.3 The Independent Directors on the Board are expected to provide independent judgement, experience and objectivity without being subordinated to operational considerations.

3.2.4 The Independent Directors are expected to ensure that the interests of all shareholders are protected, and that the relevant issues are subjected to objective and impartial consideration by the Board.

3.2.5 The views of the Independent Directors shall carry significant weight in the Board's decision-making process.

3.2.6 If, on any matter discussed at a Board meeting, any Director holds views contrary to those of any of the other Directors, the Board minutes will clearly reflect this.

3.2.7 The number of Directors (including the Group Managing Director or GMD) should not be less than 2 nor more than 15. Nevertheless, the Board is at the discretion to revise its size from time to time.

3.2.8 The Board Directorship Policy sets out the formal commitment for the Board of Directors regarding the directorship and tenure of Board members. The Board Directorship Policy is embedded in the Board Charter and is made available for reference on the Company's website at <http://www.boustead.com.my>

3.3 Board Diversity

3.3.1 The Board embraces diversity and gender mix in its composition and believes that the presence of diverse ethnicities, nationalities and gender mix on the Board can widen the Board's perspectives in effectively discharging its duties and responsibilities. However, due recognition to the financial, technical, experience and skill sets of the Director is imperative and shall remain priority at all times.

The Board aims to appoint and maintain 30% women participation on its Board in line with Government's aspiration.

3.4 Senior Independent Non-Executive Director

3.4.1 The Board may appoint a Senior Independent Non-Executive Director to act as a sounding board for the Chairman, to act as an intermediary for other Directors when necessary and as a point of contact to whom shareholders' concerns can be conveyed.

3.4.2 The Senior Independent Director shall have specific responsibilities which include the following:-

- a) Serves as a designated contact for consultation and direct communication with shareholders on areas that cannot be resolved through normal channels of contact with the Chairman or Managing Director;
- b) Serves as the principal conduit between the Independent Directors and the Chairman on sensitive issues;
- c) Ensures all Independent Directors have the opportunity to provide input on the agenda, and advise the Chairman on the quality, quantity and timeliness of the information submitted by Management that is necessary or appropriate for the Independent Directors to perform their duties effectively; and
- d) Provides avenue for confidential discussions with other Non-Executive Directors who may have concerns which they believe have not been properly considered by the Board as a whole.

3.4.3 The oversight of the whistleblowing function is under the purview of the Senior Independent Director who shall ensure that all reported violations are properly investigated. The Senior Independent Director is also responsible for reviewing the effectiveness of the actions taken in response to all concerns raised.

3.5 Appointment

3.5.1 A person shall not hold office as a Director of the Company, if the person:-

- d) has been convicted of an offence under sections 213, 217, 218, 228 and 539 of Companies Act 2016; or
- e) has been disqualified by the Court under section 199 of Companies Act 2016.

3.5.2 The appointment of a new Director is a matter for consideration and decision by the full Board upon appropriate recommendation from the Nominating and Remuneration Committee.

3.5.3 The Company Secretary has the responsibility of ensuring that relevant procedures relating to the appointments of new Directors are properly executed. The Company Secretary shall facilitate the orientation for new Directors to be familiarise with the Company's business and operations.

3.6 Re-election

3.6.1 All Directors are subject to retirement by rotation at the Company's AGM, at least once in every three (3) years, and shall be eligible for re-election.

3.7 Remuneration

3.7.1 The remuneration of the Directors is subject to review and recommendation by the Nominating and Remuneration Committee.

3.7.2 A review of the remuneration of the GMD/Group Chief Executive Officer (GCEO) and key senior management is undertaken on an annual basis while a review for Non-Executive Directors may be reviewed from time to time, as may be determined by the Board.

3.8 Board Meetings

- 3.8.1 All Directors are provided with timely and quality information and in a form and manner appropriate for them to discharge their duties effectively.
- 3.8.2 Management is responsible for providing the Board with the required information in an appropriate and timely manner. The Chairman, assisted by the Company Secretary, assesses the type of information required to be provided to the Board. If the information provided by Management is insufficient, the Board will make further enquiries where necessary to which the persons responsible will respond as fully and promptly as possible.
- 3.8.3 The Board shall conduct at least four (4) scheduled meetings a year, with additional meetings convened as and when required. Management may be invited to attend and speak at meetings on matters relating to their sphere of responsibility.
- 3.8.4 The quorum for a Board meeting shall be a minimum of four (4) Directors, unless the number of Directors of the Company decreases to two (2), in which case Clauses 142 and 144 of the Company's Constitution shall apply. In the absence of the Chairman, the members present shall elect a Chairman from amongst them to chair the meeting.
- 3.8.5 The Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- 3.8.6 Each Director shall attend physically at least 50% of the total Board meetings held during the year.
- 3.8.7 The Board papers are circulated to Directors five (5) days in advance of each Board meeting. The Board papers shall include, amongst others:
- a) Quarterly financial report and report on the Company's cash and borrowing positions;
 - b) Minutes of meetings of all Committees of the Board;
 - c) A current review of the operations of the Company;
 - d) Reports on Related Party Transactions and Recurrent Related Party Transactions;
 - e) Directors' share-dealings, including public shareholdings spread; and
 - f) Annual Management Plans.
- 3.8.8 The minutes of the Board meetings are properly recorded and kept by the Company Secretary.

3.9 Board Effectiveness Evaluation

- 3.9.1 The Board shall ensure that a formal and objective annual evaluation process is in place to determine the effectiveness of the Board, its Committees and each individual Director. The Board will also engage independent experts once in every four (4) years to facilitate the Board Effectiveness Evaluation process.

3.10 Tenure of Independent Director

- 3.10.1 The tenure of an Independent Director shall not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine (9) years. Upon completion of the nine (9) years, an Independent Director may continue to serve on the Board as a Non-Independent Director.
- 3.10.2 If the Board intends to retain an Independent Director beyond nine (9) years, it shall justify and seek annual shareholders' approval.
- 3.10.3 If the Board continues to retain the Independent Director after the twelfth (12) year, the Board shall seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

3.11 Matters Reserved by the Board

3.11.1 The following matters shall require approval from the Board:-

- a) approval of strategic directions, plans and key policies;
- b) approval of annual budgets, including major capital commitments and capital expenditure budgets;
- c) approval of new major ventures;
- d) approval of material acquisitions and disposition of assets not in the ordinary course of business;
- e) key changes to management and control structure within the Company;
- f) appointment of GMD/GCEO, Board members, Board Committee members, and Company Secretary; and
- g) any matters or transactions that fall within the ambit of the Board pursuant to the Companies Act, MMLR, the Company's Constitution or any other applicable laws and regulations.

3.11.2 Notwithstanding the above, the Board has discretion to delegate authority to Board Committee, Chairman, GMD/GCEO or nominated members of Senior Management on selected issues as it deems fit.

3.12 Conflict of Interest

3.12.1 A Director shall at all times avoid conflict of interest and shall as soon as practicable after the relevant facts have come to his/her knowledge, declare the nature of his/her interest.

3.12.2 Should there be an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest between the Group or a related corporation and a Director, or an associate of a Director such as a spouse or other family members, the Director involved shall make full disclosure and act honestly in the best interest of the Company.

3.13 Integrity & Governance

3.13.1 The Board has in place the Boustead Code of Ethics and Conduct to be read together with the Director's Code of Ethics and Conduct formulated to enhance corporate governance and the standard of professional and ethical practices of all Boustead employees including the Directors. The Boustead Code of Ethics and Conduct and Director's Code of Ethics and Conduct are included in the Board Charter and are made available for reference on the Company's website at <http://www.boustead.com.my>

3.13.2 Boustead has a zero-tolerance stance towards bribery and corruption. This is evident with the adoption of the Boustead Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy Statement in September 2020 which is enclosed as Appendix 1. The policy is applicable to all employees and Directors within the Group.

3.13.3 Every director shall be aware of Section 17A of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 ("MACC Act"). Section 17A provides that a commercial organization commits an offence if an associated person promises gratification to any person with an intent "to obtain or retain business" or "an advantage in the conduct of business for the commercial organization".

3.13.4 The above offence is punishable by a fine of not less than ten (10) times of the sum or value of the gratification (where such gratification is capable of being valued or is of pecuniary nature) or RM1 million, whichever is the higher, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding twenty (20) years or to both.

3.13.5 The Board has also put in place the Boustead No Gift Policy which prohibits the receiving and offering of gifts to prevent corruption and unethical practice. The Boustead No Gift Policy is available for reference on the Company's website at <http://www.boustead.com.my>

3.14 Whistleblowing

3.14.1 Oversight of the whistleblowing function is under the purview of the Audit Committee. The Complaint Management Unit is the working unit chaired by the Head of GIG which reports to the Audit Committee and ultimately to the Board of Directors. The Complaint Management Unit shall ensure that all complaints received through the whistleblowing channels are assessed and reported to the Audit Committee where the Audit Committee will decide on the action to be taken thereafter. The Complaint Management Unit is also responsible for reviewing the effectiveness of the actions taken in response to all concerns raised.

3.14.2 The Board has approved the Boustead Whistleblowing Policy which provides an avenue for employees and members of the public to report any improper conduct within the Group. The Boustead Whistleblowing Policy is available for reference on the Company's website at <http://www.boustead.com.my>

BOARD DIRECTORSHIP POLICY

(as at 28 August 2019)

BOARD DIRECTORSHIP POLICY

The Board Directorship Policy shall serve as formal commitment for Boustead Holdings Berhad (“BHB” or “the Company”) and the Board of Directors (“Director”, “Board” or “Board members”) regarding the directorship and tenure of BHB Board members.

1. A Director shall be a natural person who is at least eighteen (18) years of age. Pursuant to Clause 107 of the Company’s Constitution, the number of Directors shall not be less than two (2) nor more than fifteen (15).
2. At any one time, at least two (2) or one-third (1/3), whichever is higher, of the Board members must be Independent Non-Executive Directors (INED). In the event of vacancy in the Board of Directors resulting in non-compliance of this rule, BHB must ensure to fill the vacancy within three (3) months.
3. The appointment of any Director (either Managing Director (MD), Independent Non-Executive Director (INED) or Non-Independent Non-Executive Director (NINED)) shall be for an initial term of three (3) years from the date of their appointment to the Board. Pursuant to Clause 123 of the Company’s Constitution, any Director so appointed by the Board during the year shall hold office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting (AGM) and shall be eligible for re-election.
4. Pursuant to Clause 117 of the Company’s Constitution, an election of Directors shall take place each year at the AGM whereby at least one-third of the Directors who are subject to retirement by rotation or, if their number is not three (3) or a multiple of three (3), the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office PROVIDED ALWAYS that all Directors shall retire from office once at least in each three (3) years, but shall be eligible for re-election. A Director retiring at a meeting shall retain office until the conclusion of the meeting.
5. Subject to the Companies Act 2016, the Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election but as between persons who became Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.
6. The term of directorship of an INED shall not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine (9) years. The Board however, upon completion of the nine (9) years, may with a view to add long-term value and in recognition of the INED’s contribution to the Company, invite the INED to continue to serve on the Board as a NINED.
7. If the Board determines that an INED can serve the Company in an independent capacity beyond nine (9) years, the Board may choose to propose for annual re-appointment of the INED by the members at the next AGM by way of an ordinary resolution, if the INED has served for a cumulative term of nine (9) years.
8. If the Board determines that an INED can serve the Company in an independent capacity beyond twelve (12) years, the Board may choose to propose for annual re-appointment of the INED by the members at the next AGM by way of an ordinary resolution through a two-tier voting process recommended by the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance if the INED has served for a cumulative term of beyond twelve (12) years.
9. Any Director (excluding Executive Director) who attains the age of 75 before the next AGM shall not be eligible for re-election as a Director.

10. The office of a Director of the Company shall be vacated if the person holding that office:-

- I. subject to Sections 196(3) and 209 of the Act, resigns from his office by giving a written notice to the Company at the Office;
- II. has retired in accordance with the Act or this Constitution of the Company but is not re-elected;
- III. is removed from office in accordance with the Act or the Constitution of the Company;
- IV. becomes disqualified from being a director under Sections 198 or 199 of the Act;
- V. becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the Mental Health Act 2001 or such legislation having the same effect;
- VI. dies;
- VII. otherwise vacate his office in accordance with the Constitution; or
- VIII. absents himself from more than fifty per cent (50%) of the total Board's meetings held during a financial year.
